Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 1, to Saturday July 5, 1794.

St. James's, July 1.

THE King and Queen set out from Windsor on Thursday the 26th of last Month, early in the Morning, for Portsmouth, accompanied by Their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Augusta and Elizabeth, and attended by Lady Courtown, Lady Frances Howard, and Lady Caroline Waldegrave; and, arriving at Portsea Bridge about Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, were saluted, on their entering the Lines, by the Guns at that Barrier.

On their Arrival at the Lion Gate Their Majesties were received by General Sir William Augustus Pitt, K. B. Governor of Portsmouth, who delivered to the King the Keys of the Garrison, which His Majesty was pleased to return to him.

On Their Majesties entering the Lion Gate, the Guns round the whole Ramparts were fired, beginning at the Battery next to that Gate, and ending with the Block-House Battery on the Gosport Side.

Their Majesties then proceeded to the Dock-Yard, and arrived at the Commissioner's House at Half past Ten o'Clock, where they were received at the Door by the Secretary of State for the Home Department, the Board of Admiralty, the Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces, the Master-General of the Ordnance, the Earl of Harrington Goldstick in Waiting, Admiral Sir Peter Parker, Bart. Commanding Officer in the Port, and by the Commissioners of the Navy and Victualling, &c. At Twelve o'Clock Their Majesties, with the Princesses Augusta and Elizabeth, and Their Royal Highnesses Prince Ernest Augustus, with the Princesses Mary, Sophia and Amelia, (who arrived at the Commissioner's House the Night before) went to the King's Stairs, where they embarked in the Barge prepared for their Reception, the Royal Standard being immediately hoisted, and, attended by the Earl of Chatham, First Lord Commissioner of the Admiralty, proceeded to Spithead; Admiral Sir Peter Parker, in his Barge with his Flag flying, leading the Procession, and the Board of Admiralty in their Barge carrying the Flag of their Office, immediately preceding the King's Barge, which was followed by Admiral Sir Alexander Hood, K. B. and Rear-Admiral Gardner, in their Barges, by those of Rear-Admirals Bowyer and Pasley, (though they were unable to attend themselves) having their respective Flags flying, and by the Captains of all the Line of Battle Ships at Portsmouth and Spithead, and of the Frigates of the Channel Fleet, in their respective Boats, with Pendants flying, in Two Lines, according to their Seniority.

As Their Majesties passed the Garrison they were saluted with Twenty-one Guns from the Battery on the Platform, and, when the Royal Standard was seen from the Fleet at Spithead, they were saluted in the same Manner by the several Ships there, which was repeated by the Guns on the Platform; and as they passed the Ships (all of which were manned on their Lower and Topmast Shrouds) their Companies gave Three Cheers; the Guard being turned out, beating a March, and the Officers saluting.

On Their Majesties going on board the Queen Charlotte, the Royal Standard was hoisted at the Main Topmast Head, the Flag of the Lord High Admiral at the Fore Topmast Head, and the Union Flag at the Mizen Topmast Head; the Admiralty Flag was directly afterwards hoisted on board the Queen, at which Time the Flags of Admiral Earl Howe and Rear-Admiral Gardner were removed, and hoisted on board the Pegasus and Latona; the Standard was immediately saluted by the whole Fleet, as before; the Queen (in which the Admiralty Flag was flying) having fired Two Guns as a Signal for that Purpose, and the Salute was answered by an equal Number of Guns from the Battery on the Platform.

The King, on his coming upon the Quarter-Deck, presented Admiral Earl Howe with a Sword, richly set with Diamonds, and likewise with a Gold Chain to be worn about the Neck; and he also presented Admiral Sir Alexander Hood, Rear-Admiral Gardner, and Sir Roger Curtis First Captain of the Fleet, with similar Chains; to each of which is to be suspended a Medal now preparing for that Purpose.

Their Majesties and the Royal Family, having partaken of a cold Collation with Admiral Earl Howe, went into their Barge about Six o'Clock, attended by the Earl of Chatham; and returned into the Harbour in the same Order of Procession in which they went to Spithead, with this Difference only, that Admiral Earl Howe, in his Barge with the Union Flag hoisted, led the Procession instead of Admiral Sir Peter Parker, who took his Station in the Rear immediately after the King's Barge; the Ships at Spithead and the Battery on the Platform saluting as before. On their Arrival in the Harbour, they rowed round the French Prizes captured by Admiral Earl Howe, and then returned to the Commissioner's House.

Friday,

[Price Twenty-pence.]

Friday, June 27.

Their Majeſties and the Royal Family this Morning viewed, amongſt other Parts of the Dock-Yard, ſeveral of the Storehouſes, the Sail Loft, Rigging Houſe, the new South Dock, the Double Dock, and Baſon, (going on board and viewing in their Way Le Pompée, of 74 Guns, lately brought from Toulon); the Smith's Old Shop, where the Anchor-Smiths were at Work in forging Parts of Two large Anchors; and afterwards proceeded, in their Carriages eſcorted by a Party of the Life-Guards, to the Governor's Houſe in the Garriſon, where His Majeſty had a Public Levee; at which the Miniſters and Nobility, as well as the Admirals and Captains of the Channel Fleet who could attend, were preſent (the latter of whom had the Honour of kiſſing His Majeſty's Hand) and alſo ſeveral other Officers, Civil and Military, who came to pay their Duty to His Majeſty, who was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Samuel Marſhall, Eſq^r One of the Commiſſioners, and William Rule, Eſq^r One of the Surveyors, of His Majeſty's Navy.

The Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Town were introduced, and preſented the following Addreſs to the King, viz.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of Portſmouth, with infinite Satisfaction and Joy, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, to offer our Congratulations on your Majeſty's Arrival in this your ancient and moſt loyal Borough.

Anxious for the Glory of your Majeſty's Reign, and the Proſperity of your Dominions, we rejoice at the ſignal Victory, which the extraordinary Exertions of the Britiſh Fleet have lately obtained.

The intrepid and judicious Conduct of the Commander in Chief, the ſpirited Behaviour of the Officers, the heroic Valour of the Seamen, Marines and Soldiers, muſt ever be remembered with the warmeſt Emotions, demand our higheſt Expreſſions of Gratitude, and be diſtinguiſhed with unexampled Luſtre in the Annals of this Kingdom.

We reflect, with Concern, upon the wretched State of Anarchy and Confuſion to which a neighbouring Nation is reduced; from their Misfortunes we learn an inſtructive Leſſon, and, by contemplating their Diſtreſſes, we know how to value the Britiſh Conſtitution.

With Hearts full of Zeal and Attachment, we beg to aſſure your Majeſty of our determined Reſolution to diſcountenance and reſiſt every Kind of Innovation and Diſorder that may, (but which we truſt will never) ariſe in this Country, and to approve ourſelves your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects.

THEY afterwards were introduced to the Queen, and preſented the following Addreſs to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Portſmouth, with the pureſt Sentiments of Reſpect, embrace this glorious Occaſion of preſenting our humble Duty to your Majeſty.

The exalted Qualities of your Mind, the great Example of every public and private Virtue for which your Majeſty has been ſo long and ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed, fill our Minds with the higheſt Senſe of Gratitude and Affection.

Long may your Majeſty continue to witneſs the Succeſs of the Britiſh Arms againſt all our Enemies, and may the noble Victory, we celebrate, be only the Harbinger of others, greater and more important, until the Bleſſings of Peace and Tranquillity ſhall be reſtored, and nothing remain to diſturb the Comfort and Happineſs of your Majeſty and your Family, to the lateſt Poſterity.

They were all received very graciouſly, and had the Honour to kiſs Their Majeſties Hands.

WHEN the Levee was over, Their Majeſties and the Royal Family returned, in their Carriages eſcorted as before, to the Dock-Yard, where His Majeſty viewed ſeveral of the Storehouſes, the Maſthouſes, and other Buildings, which he had not viſited before; and afterwards the Secretary of State for the Home Department, the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, the Earl Howe, and the other Flag Officers of the Channel Fleet who were able to attend, together with the Firſt Captain of the ſaid Fleet, the Admiral commanding in Chief in the Port, the Maſter-General of the Ordnance, the Governor of the Garriſon, and ſome of Their Majeſties Suite, had the Honour to dine at the King's Table in the Commiſſioner's Houſe.

About Six o'Clock Their Majeſties and the Royal Family embarked in the King's Barge, in which the Royal Standard was immediately hoiſted, attended by the Earl of Chatham as before, by the Board of Admiralty and the Commiſſioners of the Navy in their Barges, with the Flags of their reſpective Offices flying, and by Admiral Sir Peter Parker and the Flag Officers of the Channel Fleet (who were able to attend) in their Barges, with their reſpective Flags flying alſo, and proceeded up the Harbour to view the French Prizes taken and brought in by Admiral Earl Howe's Fleet; and, having viſited each of them, returned in the Evening to the Commiſſioner's Houſe, before which a great Number of the Artificers and Workmen of the Yard were drawn up, and ſung "God ſave the King," "Rule Britannia," &c.

Saturday, June 28.

The King this Morning viewed ſome other Parts of the Dock-Yard; and afterwards Their Majeſties and the Royal Family proceeded, in their Carriages eſcorted as on the preceding Day, to the Governor's Houſe in the Garriſon; on the Parade before which the South Glouceſter Militia, under the Command of the Earl of Berkeley, were drawn up for His Majeſty's Inſpection, who expreſſed himſelf highly ſatisfied with their Appearance. Their Majeſties and the Royal Family then returned, in their Carriages under the ſame Eſcort, to the Gun-Wharf, where they were received by the Maſter-General of the Ordnance; and, having viewed the New Armoury and the different Storehouſes, His Majeſty was pleaſed to expreſs his great Satisfaction at the Order in which every Thing was kept, and then proceeded to the Dock-Yard, where the Prince of Wales (a fine Second Rate of 98 Guns) was ſoon afterwards launched; His Royal Highneſs Prince Erneſt Auguſtus performing the uſual Ceremony of naming her.

In the Interval, between Their Majeſties and the Princeſſes entering the Pavilion prepared for their Reception, and the Ship's going off, ſeveral of the Artificers and Workmen of the Yard, who were drawn up near to the Ship and oppoſite the Royal Pavilion, ſung again "God ſave the King," "Rule Britannia," &c. &c.

The Launch of the above mentioned Ship was performed in the compleateſt Manner, and to the general Satisfaction of Their Majeſties, the Royal Family and the numerous Spectators, who filled every Part of the Yard, and the Ships in the Harbour, within View; which, added to the great Number of Sailing Veſſels and Boats attending upon the Occaſion, and the Fineneſs of the Day, exhibited the moſt brilliant and charming Spectacle that can be imagined.

When the Launch was over, Their Majeſties and the Royal Family repaired to the King's Stairs, embarked on Board the Barge, where the Standard was immediately hoiſted, and, attended by the Board of Admiralty, the Flag Officers and Captains in their reſpective Barges, with their Colours and Pendants flying, proceeded to Spithead, and were ſaluted, as they came in Sight, with 21 Guns, from the Platform Battery, and from each of the Ships at Spithead, which which were manned, had their Guard turned out, and cheered, as before.

Their Majeſties and the Royal Family, on their Arrival at Spithead, went on board the Aquilon Frigate of 32 Guns, commanded by the Honorable Captain Stopford, attended by the Board of Admiralty and Admiral Sir Peter Parker, when the Royal Standard was hoiſted at the Main Topgallant-Maſt Head, the Lord High Admiral's Flag at the Fore Topgallant-Maſt Head, and the Union Flag at the Mizen Topgallant-Maſt Head, the other Ships ſaluting as before. The Board of Admiralty then repaired on board the Niger Frigate of 32 Guns, commanded by the Honorable Captain Legge, when the Flag of their Office was hoiſted at her Main Topgallant-Maſt Head, and Admiral Sir Peter Parker returned to his proper Ship. Shortly afterwards both Frigates got under Sail, and ſtood with a fine Breeze towards the Needles; and, on their Arrival off Cowes, Their Majeſties were ſaluted by the Monarch of 74 Guns, on board which Rear-Admiral Sir James Wallace's Flag was flying, alſo by the Andromache Frigate and the Hornet Sloop, under his Command, and by the Perſeus Frigate, all of which were lying there, were manned in their Shrouds, had their Guard turned out, and cheered as Their Majeſties paſſed.

The Tide being nearly ſpent, and the Wind not favorable for going back in the Frigates to Spithead, Their Majeſties and the Royal Family, the Board of Admiralty, and the Admiral Earl Howe, returned in their reſpective Barges to the Dock-Yard, where they arrived about Ten o'Clock in the Evening.

Sunday, June 29.

Their Majeſties and the Royal Family went this Morning to the Chapel in the Dock-Yard, attended by the Secretary of State for the Home Department, the Board of Admiralty, Admiral Earl Howe, the Admirals and other Officers of the Fleet, the Maſter-General of the Ordnance, and the Commiſſioners of the Navy and Victualling, &c. where Prayers were read by the Reverend Mr. Howell, and a Sermon, ſuitable to the Occaſion, was afterwards preached by the Reverend Mr. Scott, Chaplain to the Ordinary. Their Majeſties and the Royal Family then went to ſee the Ship, (launched the Day before) which had been taken into Dock to be coppered; an Operation then in Hand, and which was compleatly performed in Eight Hours and Ten Minutes. His Majeſty, after inſpecting very minutely every Part of the Ship, and going to the Bottom of the Dock to ſee the Copper Sheathing put on, returned, with the Queen and Royal Family, to the Commiſſioner's Houſe, where the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, Admiral Earl Howe, Admiral Sir Alexander Hood, Rear-Admiral Gardner, Sir Roger Curtis, and the Poſt Captains of the Channel Fleet, had the Honor of dining at His Majeſty's Table; previous to which Rear-Admiral Gardner had the Honor to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand upon being appointed Major-General of Marines.

When Dinner was over, Their Majeſties and the Royal Family went, in their Carriages eſcorted as before, to the Governor's Houſe in the Garriſon; and His Majeſty, Prince Erneſt Auguſtus, the Commander in Chief of the Forces, the Maſter-General of the Ordnance, and other General Officers, &c. having walked entirely round the Whole of the Ramparts, came back to the Governor's Houſe, and, with the Queen and Royal Family, afterwards went up to the Queen's Baſtion adjoining, and then, eſcorted as before, returned in the Evening to the Commiſſioner's Houſe in the Dock-Yard.

Monday, June 30.

His Majeſty this Morning went to ſee the Prince of Wales, which (having been completely coppered in the Courſe of Yeſterday, as before mentioned) was put out of Dock and afloat in the Harbour, and returned afterwards to the Commiſſioner's Houſe, where His Majeſty was pleaſed to ſignify his Intention of granting the Dignity of a Baronet of Great Britain to Charles Saxton, Eſq' the Reſident Commiſſioner, and conferred the Honor of Knighthood on Captain Bayne of the Queen's Regiment, in conſequence of which they had both the Honor of kiſſing His Majeſty's Hand. Their Majeſties and the Royal Family went afterwards, about Nine o'Clock, to the King's Stairs, embarked on board the King's Barge, where the Royal Standard was immediately hoiſted, and proceeded to Spithead; Admiral Earl Howe, the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, and the Admirals and Captains, in their ſeveral Barges, (with their reſpective Colours and Pendants hoiſted as before) attending; and, upon coming in View of the Battery on the Platform, were ſaluted with Twenty-one Guns from that Battery, followed by the Guns round the Ramparts, and, when the Royal Standard came in Sight of the Fleet at Spithead, they were ſaluted by the ſame Number of Guns from each of the Ships there.

On their Arrival at Spithead Their Majeſties and the Royal Family went on Board the Aquilon Frigate, when the Royal Standard, with the Lord High Admiral's Flag and the Union Flag, were hoiſted, and Their Majeſties were ſaluted by the Ships at Spithead as before; and, ſoon afterwards, the Aquilon made Sail with a fair Wind to Southampton, (attended by the Niger Frigate) where they and the Royal Family landed about Two o'Clock, and immediately proceeded to Windſor, and arrived there, in perfect Health, at Ten the ſame Evening.

The Shores, both on the Portſmouth and Goſport Side, were lined with an incredible Number of People, whenever Their Majeſties and the Royal Family went from the Dock-Yard by Water, who expreſſed their Loyalty to Their Majeſties, as they paſſed along, by Acclamations and other Demonſtrations of Joy; and the Houſes, as well as the Steeple of the Church in the Town of Portſmouth, and the Houſes and Buildings in Portſea and Goſport, were illuminated every Night (except Sunday) during Their Majeſties Stay; and ſeveral tranſparent Paintings and other Devices, which had been prepared for the Occaſion, were exhibited in different Parts of thoſe Towns.

The King was pleaſed to expreſs the higheſt Approbation of the Forwardneſs in which he found the Refitment of the Channel Fleet, of the excellent Condition of the Dock-Yard, Arſenals and Garriſon, and of the Regularity with which every Thing was conducted; and ſhewed the utmoſt Satisfaction at the Demonſtrations of Loyalty and Affection with which Their Majeſties and the Royal Family were received wherever they went by all Ranks of People.

The Weather was remarkably fine during the whole Time Their Majeſties and the Royal Family remained at Portſmouth, and every Thing ſeemed in an eminent Degree to favour the Royal Viſit.

His Majeſty, before he left Portſmouth, was graciouſly pleaſed to give Orders for Donations to be made, out of his Privy Purſe to the Artificers, Workmen and Labourers of the Dock-Yard, including the Ordinary, to the Workmen and Labourers of the Victualling and Ordnance Departments at the Port, and to the Crews of the Queen Charlotte and Aquilon and the Chatham Yacht, ſimilar in Proportion to their Numbers to thoſe which were made when His Majeſty was at Portſmouth in 1773. And His Majeſty was alſo graciouſly pleaſed to order One Hundred Pounds to be diſtributed to the Poor of each of the Pariſhes of Portſmouth and Portſea, Fifty Pounds to the Poor of Goſport, and Fifty Pounds to the Debtors in Portſmouth Goal, amounting, with other Donations, to upwards of Three Thouſand Pounds.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, July 4, 1794.

THE King has been pleaſed to appoint William Young, Eſq; James Gambier, Eſq; and the Right Honorable Lord Hugh Seymour, to be Colonels in His Majeſty's Marine Forces, in the room of the Honorable William Waldegrave, Thomas Pringle, Eſq; and Sir Roger Curtis, Knt. appointed Flag Officers of His Majeſty's Fleet.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th of June, 1794,

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-ſixth Day of December, 1792, to promiſe and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majeſty's Service, ſhould be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every ſuch Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who ſhould, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themſelves to ſerve in His Majeſty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels, or Officers employed on Shore for raiſing Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majeſty was alſo graciouſly pleaſed, by His ſaid Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who ſhould ſo enter themſelves as aforeſaid, ſhould receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majeſty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majeſty was alſo graciouſly pleaſed, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the ſaid Month of February, 1793, to promiſe and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to ſerve on board His Majeſty's Ships, ſhould be paid to any Perſon who ſhould diſcover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themſelves, ſo that ſuch Seaman or Seamen ſhould be taken for His Majeſty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majeſty's Sea Officers appointed to raiſe Men on Shore, or by the Captains and Commanders of any of His Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels in the Ports or on the Coaſts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the ſaid Proclamations for Payment of the ſaid Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirtieth Day of this inſtant June: And it being judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service that the ſaid Bounties and Reward ſhould be continued to be paid for ſome Time longer; His Majeſty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the ſaid Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the ſaid Thirtieth Day of this inſtant June to the Thirty-firſt Day of Auguſt next, incluſive: Whereof all Perſons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themſelves accordingly. W. Fawkener.

Whitehall, July 5.

The following Addreſs has been tranſmitted by the Earl of Radnor, Recorder of Old Sarum, to the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and preſented by him to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to preſent our Congratulations to your Majeſty on the late important and glorious Victory obtained by the Britiſh Fleet, under the Command of Earl Howe, over that of the French.

We regard it as of the moſt ſignal Advantage to this Country; and hope the Enemy will learn, as well from that as the many other great and ſucceſsful Operations of your Majeſty's Arms by Sea and Land, that no Danger can daunt the Spirit of a Briton in the Defence of his King and Country; and that his Valour is only to be equalled by his Generoſity to a vanquiſhed Foe.

We feel it particularly incumbent, on this Occaſion, to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to our preſent happy Conſtitution; and, as a Proof of our Eſteem for the Bleſſings we enjoy under it, are determined, by every Means in our Power, to maintain and uphold the ſame, and to reſiſt all Attempts whatever which may tend to diſturb the Public Peace.

We deplore the ſad Neceſſity of the preſent War; and well-knowing your Majeſty's anxious Solicitude for the Welfare and Proſperity of your People, anticipate what your Majeſty's Feelings will be, when you ſhall have the ſupreme Happineſs of informing them of the Return of Peace and Tranquillity to theſe Kingdoms.

We ſincerely pray to the Great Diſpoſer of all Events, that your Majeſty's Councils, Fleets and Armies may proceed with the deſired Succeſs, to effect ſo great a Bleſſing; and that your Majeſty may long live the revered Father of your People, happy in the Enjoyment of every domeſtic Comfort, and known to the World as the King of a brave and loyal Nation.

Dated, under our Common Seal, this 27th Day of June, in the Thirty-fourth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.
